Accredited Training Courses

Accreditation and Training Services
is a registered training provider with the ETDP SETA.

Business History and Field of Operation

Following the South African Qualifications Authority's (SAQA) decision in that all training programmes falling within the generic educational training practices domain, will in future become an Education Training and Development Practices Sector Education and Training Authority (ETDP SETA) responsibility. Up to that stage the various SETA's trained, assessed and registered their own assessors, facilitators, moderators etc. In view of the fact that the SAQA decision would stimulate the ETD training market, ATS was launched and accredited at the ETDP SETA (nr. ETDP9952).

Training is offered at ATS' main training facility in Groenkloof, Pretoria. Various other training venues can be arranged throughout South Africa to meet the particular requirements of our clients.

An indication of the scope of training offered and number of candidates already trained is provided by the following: more than 3000 individuals from a variety of sectors have been trained as assessors; in excess of 1000 moderators have also been trained, as well as some 500 facilitators, 50 assessment designers, some 200 evidence facilitators, and 350 coaches (one-to-one trainers). We also have accreditation to present ABET training programs (Literacy and Numeracy), Skills Development Facilitators (SDF) and Early Childhood Development Level 4 & 5.

This Skills Programme will enable learners to present and participate effectively in oral communication in various contexts.

Learners at this level have a fundamental knowledge base of the purposes and the context for communication as well as of target audiences. They effectively apply the style and language register required in different contexts. Learners can identify and make assumptions and inferences from and in oral communication. They speak fluently and confidently in both formal and informal settings and can articulate their purpose and meaning clearly. Language can be used to convey and evaluate detailed information, to express ideas and feelings and to use appropriate presentation skills and strategies. Learners use language correctly and effectively in their spoken communications.

Apart from verbal communication, this skills programme will also require learners to follow a process in writing workplace specific texts. The ability to write plain language will improve the quality of business correspondence and other texts that are specific to a workplace environment. The course enables learners to recognise and use effectively textual conventions and features specific to business texts including those that require a particular format and/or specified legislated requirements. They carefully scrutinise their own and others' writing for accuracy, appropriateness and impact on different audiences and contexts. They edit and change where appropriate.

Programme Outcomes:

- Interact critically and purposefully as a listener and/or speaker in oral communication
- Analyse and critically evaluate oral interactions and presentations
- Use strategies for listening and speaking in sustained oral interactions
- Analyse and evaluate responses to spoken texts critically and adjust own as required.
- Use writing skills for specific purposes, audiences and contexts.
- Access, process, re-organise, and synthesise information in order to present it.
- Use appropriate language conventions, textual features and style for specific workplace purposes.
- Draft and edit texts.

Who this course will benefit:

ODETDP Practitioners, Facilitators, and Educators.

Entrance Requirements:

- Learner should have a good comprehension of English.

The credit calculation is based on the assumption that learners are already competent in terms of the following outcomes or areas of learning: NQF level 4:

- Write texts for a range of communicative contexts.
- Accommodate audience and context needs in oral communication.

Assessment:

Includes theory and practical work. Portfolio building done in class.

FACILITATOR TRAINING

FACILITATOR UNIT STANDARD (ID 117871): FACILITATE LEARNING USING A VARIETY OF GIVEN METHODOLOGIES, NQF LEVEL 5, CREDITS 10

What is a facilitator?

Training Facilitators / Trainers are mainly used in adult education, and use their expertise in a subject to share knowledge and to guide a person to a higher level of competence. A Facilitator makes the process of learning easier by using outcomes-based training, which includes both theoretical and practical knowledge.

What are methodologies?

According to the dictionary a methodology is usually a guideline system for solving a problem, with specific components such as phases, tasks, methods, techniques and tools. A Facilitator uses a variety of tools, methods and techniques when facilitating a course.

Do facilitators need to be registered?

There is no clear yes or no answer for this question. Some of the SETA's will require facilitators to be registered but most of them do not place a restriction on the facilitator used for training. A person will undergo training to become a facilitator to better their skills and understanding of facilitation and to comply with industry requirements.

ATS' generic Facilitator training course will equip learners with the required knowledge and skills to facilitate learning using a variety of given methodologies in their field of expertise. The Facilitator training course will help you better understand the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) and will help you take the first step in developing your skills and acquiring a variety of qualifications within the fields of Education Training and Development Practices.

The Facilitator has to determine the needs of the learners, possible learning barriers, previous learning experience, different learning styles, etc. It is also the responsibility of the Facilitator to ensure that the learning methods selected are appropriate for the learning outcomes to be achieved. Facilitation must promote open interaction and ensure that learners have an active role in their own learning. Facilitation must enable learners to draw from their own experience in their working environment and apply the concepts for themselves. The responsibility of the Facilitator is great and thus they need to meet a high standard of criteria.

Programme Outcomes:

- Plan and prepare for facilitation
- Facilitate learning
- Evaluate learning and facilitation

Who this course will benefit:

- Managers
- Trainers
- Human Resource Managers
- Supervisors
- Coaches

Entrance Requirements:

Learner should have a good comprehension of English.

Duration:

5 Days (includes portfolio building).

Assessment:

Includes theory and practical work as well as formative and summative assessments. Portfolio building is done within the 5 days training period and handed in at the end of the course.

ASSESSOR TRAINING

ASSESSOR UNIT STANDARD (ID 115753): CONDUCT OUTCOMES-BASED ASSESSMENT, NQF LEVEL 5, CREDITS 15

What is an Assessor?

An assessor is a person with the required knowledge and skills that determines whether a candidate is capable of doing the job at hand in their own particular field of expertise by collecting evidence. Assessors assess people, not things.

How is evidence collected?

An assessor makes use of different tools and systems to determine if a candidate is competent or not yet competent.

Is it important to be registered?

Yes! The responsibility of the assessor is great and thus they need to meet a high standard of criteria and have to be registered before they are allowed to assess.

ATS' generic Assessor training course will equip learners with the required knowledge and skills to assess candidates in their own particular field of expertise. The Assessor training course will help build your understanding of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) and will help you take the first step in developing your skills and acquiring a variety of qualifications within the fields of Education Training and Development Practices and Human Resource Development.

It is the responsibility of the Assessor to determine whether a candidate is competent or not yet competent. DESIGN & DEVELOP OUTCOMES-BASED ASSESSMENTS

UNIT STANDARD (ID 115755): DESIGN AND DEVELOP OUTCOMES-BASED ASSESSMENTS, NQF LEVEL 6, CREDITS 10

Why Assessment Designing?

This course is aimed at people who wish to design and develop assessments to facilitate consistent, credible, reliable, fair, and unbiased assessments of learning outcomes. The outcomes may be defined in a range of documents including but not limited to unit standards, exit level outcomes, assessment standards, curriculum statements and qualifications. This is a generic assessment unit standard, and candidates can design and develop assessments within any field of learning in line with their subject matter expertise.

How is evidence collected?

Learners registered for the programme will receive theoretical material that must be read before the commencement of the programme. An assessor makes use of different tools and systems to determine if a candidate is competent or not yet competent.

Programme Outcomes:

- Demonstrate understanding of design principles of outcomes-based assessment,
- Design outcomes-based assessments,
- Develop assessment activities and guides, and
- Evaluate assessment designs and guides.

Who this course will benefit:

Assessors, Learning Programme Developers, Facilitators, and Educators.

Entrance Requirements:

- Learner should have a good comprehension of English.
- Have already achieved US NLRD 115753: Conduct outcomes-based assessment, or equivalent,
- Are competent in the relevant field in which they are designing assessments, or have access to subject matter experts, and
- Are able to analyse and interpret the relevant outcomes (or standards).

MODERATOR TRAINING

MODERATOR UNIT STANDARD (ID 115759): CONDUCT MODERATION OF OUTCOMES-BASED ASSESSMENTS, NQF LEVEL 6, CREDITS 10

What is moderation?

Moderation is the process which ensures that assessment of the outcomes described in the NQF standards and qualifications is fair, reliable and valid.

How do you make sure it's reliable?

It is the responsibility of the Moderator to moderate assessment in terms of the relevant outcome statements and quality assurance requirements.

Do Moderators need any other qualifications?

It is preferable that all candidates wishing to become Moderators are already qualified Assessors.

Do Moderators need to be registered?

Yes! The responsibility of the Moderator is great and thus they need to meet a high standard of criteria and have to be registered before they are allowed to moderate.

ATS' generic Moderator training course will equip learners with the required knowledge and skills to conduct moderation of outcomes-based assessment (internal or external). The Moderator training course will further your understanding of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) and will help you in developing your skills and acquiring a variety of qualifications within the fields of Education Training and Development Practices and Human Resource Development.

It is the responsibility of the Moderator to moderate assessment in terms of the relevant outcome statements and quality assurance requirements. SKILLS DEVELOPMENT FACILITATOR (SDF)

SKILLS DEVELOPMENT FACILITATOR UNIT STANDARDS: 15217, 15218, 15221, 15227, 15232, 123396 AND 252041 NQF LEVEL 4, 5 AND 6, CREDITS 35

What is a Skills Development Facilitator (SDF)?

A Skills Development Facilitator is a person whom is in charge of a company's skills related activities.

Which companies should appoint an SDF?

As per the Skills Development Levies Act, all employers of organisations that are registered for skills development levy purposes with SARS have to appoint an SDF who must co-ordinate all skills related activities of an organisation.

Does an SDF need to be registered?

A Skills Development Facilitator must be registered with the relevant SETA. The SDF can perform these duties for more than one employer, but must be registered for every employer at the same or at a different SETA. Although SDF's are not required to have any formal qualifications to register, organisations will normally appoint a SDF who has an ETD qualification.

ATS' Skills Development Facilitator course will equip learners with the required knowledge and skills to identify training needs, draw up Work Place Skills Plans and Annual Training Reports. The SDF training course will give you a good comprehension of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) and will help you to develop your skills and will be a good start in acquiring a variety of qualifications within the fields of Education Training and Development Practices and Human Resource Development.

It is the duty of the Skills Development Facilitator to analyse the needs of the organisation and develop and draw up a suitable skills development plan. It is the Skills Development Facilitator's responsibility to ensure that the skills development plan is followed and properly administrated. The responsibility of a Skills Development Facilitator is great and thus they need to meet a high standard of criteria.

Programme Outcomes:

Learners will be able to:

- o Develop an organisational training and development plan
- o Conduct an analysis to determine outcomes of learning for skills development and other purposes
- o Provide information and advice regarding skills development and related issues
- o Conduct skills development administration in an organisation
- o Coordinate planned skills development interventions in an organisation

Who this course will benefit:

- o Managers
- o Human Resource Managers
- o Training Coordinators
- o Compliance Managers

Entrance Requirements:

Learner should have a good comprehension of English, Computer Literacy, Mathematical Literacy and good Communication skills.

Duration:

4 Days

Assessment:

Includes theory and practical work as well as formative and summative assessments. Portfolio building and completion is done after the initial 4 days of theoretical training and handed in after 4 - 8 weeks when completed.

ODETDP

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE: OCCUPATIONALLY DIRECTED EDUCATION TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT PRACTICES, NQF LEVEL 5, MINIMUM 141 CREDITS

The development of skills within and for the workplace is a priority within South Africa, as supported by legislation, national policies and strategies. Much of the needed skills development is carried out by people who have knowledge and skills within their area of expertise, but lack the required skills in relation to ETD. Many of the skills development objectives, nationally and within companies and organisations, are met through the efforts of ETD practitioners operating at NQF Level 5, and this certificate addresses the key competencies of such practitioners.

This qualification will meet the need of those who wish to progress beyond the FETC ODETDP, or who wish to enter the field of ETD for the first time. The certificate will also help to increase the employment prospects of ETD practitioners, while helping to ensure quality and competence within the ETD field.

This qualification will provide a means to recognise ODETDP practise at level 5 across five key ETD roles in a generalist capacity, with particular application possible in at least one role. Practitioners who wish to extend the skills in ETD to cover further ETD roles should select the Diploma ODETDP, Level 5.

Who will benefit:

This qualification is for those who want to build on a FETC in any field to enter the field of ODETDP as a potential career, and have little or no previous exposure to ETD. The qualification will also be valuable for those who may have been practising within the field, but without formal recognition. This qualification will be useful for:

- Learning facilitators.
- Assessors.
- Learner and learning supporters.
- Skills Development Facilitators.

Purpose:

This qualification will provide practitioners with the general ETD skills required at NQF level 5 across five key ETD roles, with the opportunity to specialise further in one of the following four roles:

- Design and develop learning interventions.
- Facilitate learning.
- Design and conduct assessments.
- Facilitate skills development.

Practitioners will generally carry out their role within the context of:

- Given Quality Assurance policies, procedures and processes.
- A guided and supported learning environment.

Requirements:

It is assumed that practitioners have expertise in the subject/occupation field in which they intend to provide education, training and development, at a level required to engage meaningfully in ETD within that field.

It is also assumed that learners working towards this qualification hold a FETC (Matric Certificate) or equivalent. Further learning assumptions are specified within the associated unit standards where required.

Outcomes:

- Communicate in a variety of ETD settings.
- Design and develop learning programmes and processes.
- Facilitate and evaluate learning.
- Engage in and promote assessment practices.
- Provide learning support to learners and organisations.
- Conduct skills development facilitation.

Credits:

141 Credits

- Fundamental: all 10 credits for Communications.
- Core: all 61 Core credits.
- Elective: 70 Elective credits.

Duration:

Approximately 12 months

ONE-TO-ONE TRAINING

ONE-TO-ONE TRAINING UNIT STANDARD (ID 117877): PERFORM ONE-TO-ONE TRAINING ON THE JOB, NQF LEVEL 3, CREDITS 4

Accreditation and Training Services' One-To-One training course will equip learners with the required knowledge and skills to coach individual learners in the workplace in their field of expertise. The One-To-One training course will give you a good overview of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) and will help you to develop your skills and will be a good start in acquiring a variety of qualifications within the fields of Education Training and Development Practices.

One-To-One training enables a learner to work alongside individual learners/ employees to improve their skills in a defined area of application. The trainer can provide training for any task but it should be toward some defined performance standard, be it internal or aligned with a unit standard on the NQF. The trainer should make use of theory and practical activities and monitor the learner's progress against the performance standards but is not expected to perform the role of a registered assessor. The responsibility of the One-To-One trainer (coach) is great and thus they need to meet a high standard of criteria.

Programme Outcomes:

- Prepare for one-to-one training on the job
- Conduct training sessions
- Monitor and report on learner progress
- Review training

Who this course will benefit:

- Managers / Supervisors
- Trainers / Coaches / Instructors
- Human Resource Managers

Entrance Requirements:

Learner should have a good comprehension of English.

Duration:

3 Days (includes portfolio building).

Assessment:

Includes theory and practical work as well as formative and summative assessments. Portfolio building is done within the 3 days training period and handed in at the end of the course.
